Celebrating 50 years

On September 9, 1965, Simon Fraser University opened its doors and welcomed its first class of 2,500 students. Since then, we've grown to welcome thousands of students a year and have over 100,000 alumni.

SFU Continuing Studies has been part of the SFU family for almost 45 years. From the very beginning, Continuing Studies has focused on offering professional development and personal growth opportunities to people of all ages and backgrounds. We hope to keep helping people like you pursue career goals and personal interests.

Join us in celebrating this milestone by attending one of the many public events we're offering this year.
